

A gift in your Will provides opportunities and choices for vulnerable communities

Australian Regional and Remote Community Services (ARRCS) provides care and support to people in regional and urban communities, throughout the Northern Territory and beyond.

Building partnerships is central to all that we do. We work together – respectfully, side-by-side, knowing that everyone brings experiences, culture and skills with them, which ensures our journey together is stronger.

When you remember ARRCS in your Will, you will be supporting compassionate care, health improvements and services that enhance lives throughout the Northern Territory.

How to leave a gift in your Will

Writing a Will is a personal matter and we recommend seeking independent legal advice to ensure your chosen options reflects your intentions.

After taking care of your loved ones, consider leaving a small portion of what is left of your estate to ARRCS to help improve the quality of life for people living in some of the most remote and socially disadvantaged communities in Australia.

We would love to talk to you about how you can help
